

LAGOS

One dies, three others injured in Lagos accidents

Abdullateef Aliyu, Lagos

An unidentified man yesterday lost his life in an early morning accident along the ever-busy Oshodi road in Lagos. The accident involved an articulated vehicle, a bus and a Honda cab.

It was learnt that the trailer with registration number KJA 138 XD had a brake failure before ramming into the bus with registration number AAA 338 XY and the cab numbered FKJ 163 AW.

Emergency teams led by the state Emergency Management Agency (LASEMA) were notified of the incident yesterday morning, it was learnt.

According to LASEMA, an adult male lost his life while two others sustained various injuries.

"The victim has been bagged and handed over to police officers from Akinpelu Police Station, while the trailer and other vehicles were recovered from the road with the agency's super metro and also handed over to the police," the spokesman of LASEMA, Mr. Nosa Okunbor, said.

In a related development, a truck laden with two 20ft containers and a Toyota Corolla car were involved in an accident at Stadium Bridge inward Barracks.

It was gathered that the truck had a mechanical fault before losing control while at the same time moving at high speed.