

Two Unijos Students Killed In Cult Clash

cultists

By Ado Abubakar Musa, Jos

Tue Apr 20 2021

No fewer than two students of the University of Jos were killed in a clash between members of two cult groups in a White House Hostel.

White House Hostel, an off-campus hostel, is located opposite New Legislative Quarters, along Bauchi Ring Road, in Jos North Local Government Area of Plateau State.

- Police rescue teenager from 10-year confinement in Kano
- NDLEA nabs undergraduate 'selling drugged cookies' to school children in Abuja

The victims were identified as Jakob Kefers, a 100 level student of the Admin and Planning Department, and Gideon Chongtami, who had already graduated from the Theatre Art Department of the institution.

Daily Trust gathered that the incident occurred around 10:pm on Monday when residents of the area went to sleep.

A vigilante in the area told Daily Trust that the incident occurred when a rival group embarked on a reprisal attack on some members of another group who resided in the said hostel.

The vigilante added that one of the corpses was deposited at the Jos University Teaching Hospital (JUTH) while the other one was deposited at Bingham Teaching Hospital, Jos, by the police.

When contacted, the spokesman of the State Police Command, Ubah Gabriel, said he would get back to our correspondent.

At the time of filing the report, he hasn't called back.