The spokesperson, Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) Kwara Command, Babawale Afolabi, confirmed the incident.

The attack is coming few days after a farmer, Muritala Adebayo, was kidnapped in Pampo village, in the same local government.

His abductors have demanded N100 million ransom before he could be released according to family sources.

The spokesperson for the state police command, Ajayi Okasanmi, said that the Police and other security agencies were combing Asa forest and other adjoining forests in the state to rescue Adebayo.
