

Coca-Cola Truck Crushes 3 To Death In Ibadan

FRSC supervising opening of the Kara Bridge on Lagos-Ibadan Expressway to traffic on Sunday in Lagos. PHOTO CREDIT: NAN.

By Jeremiah Oke

Wed Jun 23 2021

Three people, two male and one female, were on Wednesday morning crushed to death by a truck loaded with crates of Coca-Cola drinks at Total Garden Area of Ibadan, Oyo State capital.

The incident, which occurred at the front of Bovas Filling Station, involved a motorcycle rider with his two passengers.

- Auto crash claims 7 lives in Ekiti
- FACT CHECK: Video claiming soldiers killed bandits in Kebbi is from 2016

They were crushed when the motorcyclist was trying to overtake the Coca-Cola truck.

Our correspondent reports that it took the effort of some policemen to stop youths from setting ablaze the truck.

While confirming the incident, the Police Public Relations Officer at the state command, Adewale Osifeso, said; "it is true. I will get back to you."

