PoS robber killed in Imo

Operatives of the Imo State Police Command have killed a man for robbing a point of sale (PoS) operator in the Egbu area of Owerri.

The man was said to be part of a gang, which specialise in robbing PoS operators in the state.

Police spokesman, Mike Abatam, said in a statement yesterday that the gang was smashed following complaints that some PoS operators were being robbed in some areas within the state.

He said luck ran against the hoodlums on Wednesday at about 4 pm, when the team received a distress call that hoodlums using two power bikes were seen robbing PoS operators at Egbu in Owerri North LGA of Imo State.

"The command's tactical teams immediately raced to the scene and on sighting the police, the hoodlums speed off with their power bikes shooting at them.
