Butcher killed in Madalla

Adam Umar

Gunmen have killed a butcher identified as Musa Ahmadu in Madalla area of Niger State and dumped his body in an abandoned building in the community.

The deceased, who operates a suya spot in the area, was said to have left his kiosk to ease himself on Thursday but never returned.

A resident, who simply gave his name as Halilu, said it was the following morning that people in the neighbourhood saw blood stains on the ground and raised the alarm before reporting the matter to the police.

"The police traced the blood's spot and located his remains inside an abandoned building, with part of its fence tampered with," he said.

It was learnt that some youths in the community later pulled down the fence of the abandoned building in anger.

The Divisional Police Officer (DPO) of Madalla, CSP Adamu Danjuma, confirmed the incident to our reporter.

He said the remains of the deceased had been handed over to his family.

Daily Trust Saturday learnt that the late Musa, who lived around Kwata area in Suleja, had since been buried.