

IDP woman delivers twins, dies in Niger

From Abubakar Akote, Minna

Hauwawu Suleiman, an inmate at the internally displaced persons (IDPs) camp in Kuta, the Headquarters of Shiroro Local Government Area of Niger State, has died after she was delivered of twins.

The husband, Suleiman Ibrahim, told our correspondent that his wife died on Sunday at the Kuta General Hospital, six days after delivery.

He said one of the babies had died on Saturday before the mother.

"She suffered diarrhoea and we rushed her to Kuta General Hospital on Friday where she died on Sunday.

The remaining baby is here with us in the IDPs camp. We are feeding him with artificial milk," he said.
