

Bread seller on motorcycle crashes into trailer, dies

By Abubakar Sadiq Isah

A 37-year-old bread seller identified as Kabiru has died in an auto crash near Kwaita bridge, along the Abuja-Lokoja highway.

A witness said the incident happened around 2:42pm on Tuesday when the deceased, who was carrying bread on his motorcycle, lost control and crashed into a trailer parked near the bridge along the highway.

He said the deceased, who left Kwaita village after distributing bread to some of his customers who were mostly tea sellers (mai shayi), was heading to neighbouring Kamadi village when he lost control and crashed into the trailer.
