A resident of the area, Shehu Abubakar, said many people were also abducted during the attack which took place on Monday night.

He said the quick response by security operatives, especially the military, saved other communities in the area from the attack.

He, however, said terrorists burgled shops in Zazzaga where they carted away foodstuffs.

He said terrorists also blocked Sarkin Pawa-Minna road on Tuesday evening and also burgled shops around and stole foodstuffs.

Similarly, Daily Trust gathered that terrorists also invaded Nasko, the headquarters of Magama Local Government Area, where they rustled cattle on Monday evening.
