

NEWS

Trader Killed, Many Kidnapped As Terrorists Invade Niger Market

Bandit Rampage

By ..

Sat, 12 Mar 2022 05:47:34 GMT

At least one trader has been reportedly killed and invaded a rural market in Chikani, a community in residents.

- Inside northern communities sacked by bandits, ethnoreligious conflicts
- Women breaking the bias in Nigeria's entertainment industry

A resident, Shehu Abubakar, told our correspondent that the attackers launched the attack around 12pm when the market was filled to its capacity and operated for about 3 hours.

Daily Trust Saturday gathered that the terrorists carted away food items after the traders fled.

“We don’t know where many traders are right now because they haven’t started retuning. A lot of goods were destroyed, apart from the ones they stole.

“Up till 5pm, traders had not gone back to the market to pick their goods. One person was killed and his remains taken to the police station at Sarkin Pawa,” he said.

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer in Niger State, DSP Wasiu Abiodun, promised to get back but was yet to do so at the time of filing this report.