A spokesman for the Kano State Fire Service, Saminu Abdullahi, who confirmed the incident, said the two-storey building collapsed and covered two people instantly.

“Danjuma Tijjani of about 52 years old was successfully rescued alive with a serious injury. Rabi'u Musa of about 32 years old was rescued unconscious. The other victims went away with small degree of injury,” he said.

Daily Trust had on Thursday reported that a one-storey building under renovation collapsed along Audu Bako Way in Kano.
