

6 Kano Islamic clerics die in accident

From Zahraddeen Yakubu Shuaibu, Kano

Six Islamic clerics yesterday died in an accident while returning from an Islamic propagation outreach in Sumaila Local Government Area of Kano State.

The clerics, under the leadership of one Sheikh Alkassim Zakariyya, went on a propagation trip supported by Imam Malik Islamic Foundation.

The entourage included staff and students whose fate was not known.

Although the identity of the clerics was not known, a lot of sources on their Facebook walls confirmed the incident.

One of the posts from Kabiru Saidu Dakata said: "The death of Sheikh Alkassim and Isiya Tela and others involved in the accident is no doubt a great loss. May Almighty Allah forgive them."

Another post from Ahmad Gogel identified one of the victims on the entourage as Mustapha Musa Sa'ad.

Other clerics identified to have died included: Malam Ishaq Rummawa, Malam Zakariyya Al'qasim Dataka, and Malam Ishaq Rummawa.

When contacted, the Sector Commandant of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Mato Zubairu, told Daily Trust that the command had yet to receive the information but promised to investigate and get back.
