The police in Lagos State have arrested a 20-year old-man, simply identified as Mike, over the death of his co-worker during brawl, also simply identified as Joshua.

The suspect was said to have stabbed his co-worker on the neck during a brawl following an argument.

It was further learnt that both the suspect and the deceased work at a car wash in Abesan Estate, Ipaja.

A witness, identified as Ayo, said Mike stabbed Joshua on the neck which led to his death as a result of excessive bleeding.

The police spokesman in the state, SP Benjamin Hundeyin, said the suspect was in custody undergoing interrogation.
