

7 die in Osun road crash

The Federal Road Safety Corps, Osun Command, says seven persons died in various accidents in May.

Sector Commander, Paul Okpe, disclosed this in a statement by the command's spokesperson, Agnes Ogungbemi.

Okpe said that 26 road traffic accidents had claimed the lives of seven persons, leaving 26 others severely injured.

According to him, the command arrested 375 road traffic offenders across the state, while 125 others were educated on road traffic regulations.

Okpe said the command issued drivers licence to motorists and also having some uncollected ones.

"The numbers of vehicle licence issued and uncollected in the month of May is about 4,074," he said. (NAN)
