Gunmen kill driver in Kogi

By Tijani Labaran, Lokoja

Gunmen on Saturday shot and killed a 46-year-old tanker driver, Usman Zakari, near the Central Mosque on Obeya Street at Anyigba in Dekina LGA of Kogi State in the process.

A witness said the gunmen drove in a bus into the family compound of the driver around 4pm and shot him in front of the house.

It was learnt that Zakari was shot in front of the same house where a son of the Imam of Anyigba, a 25-year-old graduate, Yusuf Labaran, was killed last December.

The state's police command's spokesman, SP William Aya, confirmed the incident, saying, "One Mustapha Zakari was reported to have lodged a complaint of the killing of his younger brother, Usman Zakari, by gunmen," adding that the command had ordered investigation into the case.
