

Bandits kill 1, free 12 abducted Abuja farmers

By Abubakar Sadiq Isah

Bandits have shot dead one and set free 12 farmers they abducted at Kutunku and Gasakpa communities in Gurdi Ward of Abaji Area Council of the FCT.

City & Crime reports that the bandits had on Saturday, September, 3, 2022, killed one and abducted 13 farmers from the communities.

A relation of one of the released farmers, Shuaibu Ibrahim, said, "They collected N8m, two bags of rice, wine and drugs before they released 12 of them, but unfortunately, one of the victims was killed in the bush."

He said the abducted victims were released on Thursday evening at a forest in Niger State which shared border with the FCT, adding that the corpse of the slain victim had been conveyed back home and buried.

The spokesperson of the FCT Police Command, DSP Akeh Josephine, was yet to reply an SMS about the development.
