

How woman pursuing hubby with 'side chick' was killed in car crash in Calabar

The Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps in Cross River State, Maikano Hassan, has confirmed a car accident in which a woman was killed in Calabar on Sunday.

Hassan said the Toyota Highlander the woman was driving skidded off Murtala Muhammed Road and crashed into a ditch.

He said, "Though the woman was rushed to a hospital, she was pronounced dead minutes later due to injuries sustained from the incident."

It was gathered that the woman was pursuing her husband who was alleged to be with a "side chick" in his car.

■ Scene of the incident