

Bandits kill teacher, youth leader, 2 others in Kaduna

From Mohammed Ibrahim Yaba, Kaduna

People suspected to be bandits have killed four villagers, including a newly recruited school teacher, in Kajuru Local Government Area of Kaduna State.

The killings took place in two communities identified as Gefe village and Tudun Mare in the same local government.

The attack on Gefe claimed three lives including that of the youth leader of the village on Sunday night.

Daily Trust gathered that in the second attack, which occurred at Tudun Mare, the teacher identified as Elisha Arziki was killed.

A resident, who simply identified himself as Benjamin, said the youth leader and two villagers were buried on Monday.

"The youth leader alongside two villagers were killed by the bandits when they stormed the village on Sunday. They were buried on Monday. The bandits also killed a teacher at Tudun Mare village on Monday night," he said.

The Police Public Relations Officer in the state, DSP Mohammed Jalige, promised to call our reporter after getting details of the incidents but had not done so as of the time of filling this report.
