

② Driver killed in truck crash

From Abdullateef Aliyu, Lagos

A driver was yesterday killed in a road crash involving his truck at Oke Riya Agric Bus Stop, Ikorodu, Lagos State.

Findings revealed that the accident was due to brake failure and the driver lost control of the truck and it crashed into a BRT demarcation and pedestrian bridge pillar.

The Permanent Secretary of the Lagos State Emergency Management Agency (LASEMA), Dr Olufemi Osanyitolu, who confirmed the incident, said, "The trapped truck driver in the cabin who lost his life in the incident has been extricated with light duty rescue equipment in the ongoing operation and duly handed over to officials from the State Environmental Health Monitoring Unit (SEHMU).

■ The 40-ft container truck driver who died in lone accident'

y to honour aiyekan

The VC, who spoke at a pre-convocation press conference, said a total of 455 graduands comprising 397 from undergraduate programmes and 58 from the