

Gunmen Bomb Station, Kill 3 Policemen

Gunmen in the early hours of Saturday bombed the Ogidi police station in Idemili North Local Government Area of Anambra State and killed three policemen. Daily...

By Titus Eleweke

Sun, 19 Feb 2023 3:54:59 WAT

Gunmen in the early hours of Saturday bombed the Ogidi police station in Idemili North Local Government Area of Anambra State and killed three policemen.

Daily Trust on Sunday gathered that they came in a convoy of motorcycles and sienna cars shooting into the air and chanting no election in Anambra.

The state Public Relations Officer (PRO), Tochukwu Ikenga, who confirmed the incident, said security operatives have reinforced the area.

According to him, the incident is still being assessed while police operations were still ongoing in the area.

EU, Oxfam spend N434m in Adamawa, Kebbi on food security

Mobilise for Tinubu's victory, Adamu tasks APC support groups

Ikenga said, “Anambra State Police Command has reinforced security in the Idemili North area of the state following the attack on the Ogidi area command in the early hours of today (Saturday) 18/2/2023, where three police operatives paid the supreme price.

“The hoodlums started shooting sporadically on approaching the area command and threw IEDs and petrol bombs, gaining entrance. Unfortunately, the buildings in the police facility were affected.”

Similarly, the home of the National Assembly candidate of the All Progressives Congress (APC), Mrs Edith Ejezie, was attacked in Ihiala Local Government Area by gunmen.

It was learnt that Ejezie had concluded arrangements for a campaign rally where she would address supporters when the gunmen struck and vandalized all the campaign materials, including food items, chairs and canopies, and later set those items ablaze.