The spokesman said the suspect and deceased are residents of Gbadamosi Street in the estate.

“They had a misunderstanding over parking of vehicle on the street.

“In the process, Tolulope allegedly stabbed Pablo with a knife in the stomach and he died on the spot.

“Based on the report, teams of detectives from the division visited and photographed the scene.

“The corpse has been evacuated and deposited at IDH Morgue, Yaba, for autopsy,” he said.

Hundeyin said the suspect has been arrested with exhibit of crime, while investigation was in progress. (NAN)
