Assailants hack 62-year-old physically challenged to death in Ogun

From Peter Moses, Abeokuta

Suspected assailants have hacked a 62-year-old physically challenged man, Adetunji Ayaji, to death at his residence in Imasayi, Yewa-North Local Government Area of Ogun State.

The killers reportedly broke into the house after his relatives left for work and macheted him to death. Police spokesman, Omotola Odutola, confirmed this incident on Thursday.

He said the victim was macheted to death around 3pm on Wednesday and the family members met his lifeless body in the pool of blood upon their return.

He assured that the command would hasten the investigation with a view to unraveling those behind the act.
