

ISWAP holds mass burial in Borno after NAF air strikes

From Olatunji Omirin, Maiduguri

and Kwalararam between 8am and 9am.

The Islamic State of the West African Province (ISWAP) terrorists yesterday held a mass funeral for their members killed by Nigerian Air Force (NAF) jets on the outskirts of Kwalararam in Marte LGA of Borno State.

The insurgents were killed in a series of airstrikes executed by the air component of Operation Hadin Kai on Friday in Jibularam

A source said an intelligence source disclosed that the insurgents had converged in the areas to coordinate attacks against the Nigerian military when the NAF jets deployed to engage them.

The source reported that both air strikes were positive with casualties and destruction of ISWAP members and property.
