1 killed as vigilantes, hoodlums clash in Kogi From Tijani Labaran, Lokoja

A young man, Hamza Igeh, was reportedly killed at Anyigba in Dekina LGA of Kogi State during an encounter between the local vigilantes and hoodlums over a criminal act.

The incident reportedly happened at the early hours of Monday in the varsity town.

Residents said the local vigilantes were on the trail of the alleged hoodlums from the scene of a criminal act in the area when the deceased, who is popularly known in the town as Tijani Okpogolo, was shot dead.

Few other persons were said to have escaped with bullet wounds, while some escaped unhurt.

An uncle of the deceased, Ademuyiwa Usman, lamented his demise, saying he has left the issue to God to judge, wishing him eternal rest.
