Suspected bandits have invaded Anguwar Dandali in Zaria Local Government Area of Kaduna State, killing four people and injuring five.

Confirming the incident, the village head of the area, Mallam Sunusi Yusuf, told our correspondent that the suspected bandits arrived around 10.30pm Friday night and started shooting sporadically into the air.

He explained that the bandits had succeeded in shooting nine people and abducting five before the arrival of security operatives who engaged them in a gun duel.

He explained that due to the superior power of the security operatives, the bandits retreated into the bush abducting four other people, who were later intercepted and rescued by a vigilante group at Jaji area of Igabi Local Government Area.

Those killed by the suspected bandits include Dahiru Tsalha Wawo, Bashir Salisu, Umar Yahuza and Umar Bako.

Those that sustained various degrees of injuries and were hospitalized are Abubakar Yahuza, Bala Shamaki, Aliyu Ahmed and Abdullahi Mamuda.
