

2 killed as herders, farmers clash in Kebbi

From Ismail Adebayo, Birnin Kebbi

Government Area of Kebbi State.

at a Fulani settlement where a young boy was also killed by angry mob.

clash in which two people were killed.

left the area before the arrival of security agents.

Two persons have been confirmed dead in a clash between farmers and herders at Kwanga community, Ngaski Local

The Chairman of Ngaski Local Government, Alhaji Abdullahi Buhari Warah, said the killing of a farmer in his farm by people suspected to be herders led to a reprisal attack

He said the fight was ignited by the destruction of farm produce by cattle as herders led them through the farms in the area and it resulted in a

The council chairman said security personnel had been deployed to curtail the spate of killings caused by the violence.

He said no arrest was made as the farmers and herders had

When contacted, the police command Public Relations Officer, SP Nafiu Abubakar said he is yet to be briefed on the incident. He promised to get back to our correspondent.