

08116759756

7-year-old boy recovered dead from well in Kwara

From Mumini Abdulkareem, Ilorin

A seven-year-old boy simply identified as Abdull-Hayi has been recovered dead from a well in Kwara State.

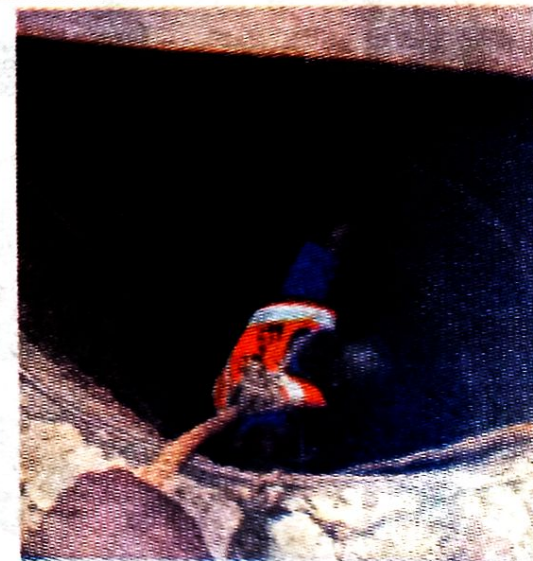

The victim, from Tinu Street in the Akerebiata area in Ilorin East

LGA, was said to have tumbled into the well after one of his legs slipped while fetching water around 6pm on Monday.

The spokesman of the Kwara State Fire Service, Hassan Hakeem Adekunle, said firemen were alerted through a phone call by one Mr Idowu.

He further said firemen recovered the corpse from the well and later handed it over to one Mr Yussuf, a family member of the deceased.

“Olumuyiwa also charged them to desist from sending under aged children to fetch water in a domestic well.”

■ Kwara Fire Service officers while retrieving the body