The statement further revealed that the husband was arrested for interrogation.

It reads in part, “Finding revealed that the couple are staff of the Yobe State University (YSU) Damaturu.

“The command condoled with the bereaved families as efforts are intensified to unravel and arrest the perpetrators.”

Meanwhile, the Nigeria Union of Journalists (NUJ), Yobe Council has strongly condemned the incident.

The NUJ called on the security agencies to deepen investigation in order to fish out the culprit.

“We are also calling on our colleagues, the journalists to follow up on the matter by giving maximum publicity to enable the arrest of the suspects to prevent future occurrence,” the state NUJ chairman, Comrade Rajab Mohammed Ismail, said.
