Troops of 6 Brigade Nigerian Army have neutralised three bandits and seized weapons and ammunition in an operation.

The troops also recovered two AK-47 rifles, a motorcycle used by the criminals, and a cache of 40 rounds of 7.62 MM Special ammunition.

The operation took place on Wednesday in Chibi village where the 6 Brigade troops, acting on actionable intelligence, conducted a precision strike against the criminal elements.

Meanwhile, the Commander

6 Brigade, Brigadier Gen Kingsley Uwa commended the troops for their bravery and efficiency in executing the operation.

He emphasised the military's determination to rid the state of criminal elements and ensure the safety and well-being of the local population.
