

QUICK READ

2 die in <sup>②</sup> Lagos-Badagry Expressway crash

Two persons on Monday died on the spot, while four others sustained varying degrees of injury in an auto-crash on Lagos-Badagry Expressway.

Mr Williams Manga, Unit Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps, Badagry, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), that the accident occurred at about 5.46 a.m., at Ibereko section of the expressway.

"Our personnel were alerted about the accident around 6.12 a.m., and we got to the scene exactly 6.20 a.m.

"The Toyota Camry with dealer registration number 01-6897DLA with seven persons – four male and three female, was coming from a popular hotel when the accident occurred.

"The vehicle somersaulted many times on the old Badagry expressway, to the other side, leaving two dead, while four sustained varying degrees of injury. (NAN)