4 nabbed over Anambra community leader's murder

The police in Anambra State have announced the arrest of four suspects over the murder of Mr Silas Onyima, President General of Umuoji Community in Idemili North LGA.

It was learnt that Onyima was murdered in his home on February 23, by masked men.

DSP Too-chukwu Ikenga, the command's spokesperson, said that police operatives in Ogidi and members of the Umuoji Vigilante Group worked together to apprehend the suspects.

He added that the mobile phone and ATM card of the deceased were recovered from the suspects. (NAN)
