A Kano State magistrates' court has ordered the remand of two vigilantes, Baffa Muhammad and Abdullahi Ismail, over alleged culpable homicide.

The prosecution counsel, Barrister Farida Wada, informed the court that the defendants conspired and killed one Isyaku Abubakar, popularly known as Dan Snake, in Kofar Naisa Quarters.

The First Information Report (FIR) revealed that the corpse of the deceased was later found in a stream.

The Magistrate, Halima Wali, ordered that the defendants be remanded in prison and adjourned the case to March 18.
