A suspected motorcycle thief has been lynched in the Apalara community in Ilorin West LGA.

A source explained that, "The suspect was apprehended after a failed attempt to stab the commercial motorcycle's owner from the back. They both fell and the suspect tried to run with the bike but was given a hot chase by residents who used every available object around to beat him until he died"

When contacted on Sunday, the spokeswoman of the state's command, Toun Ejire-Adeyemi, who confirmed the incident, said the suspect was confirmed dead when the police rushed him to the hospital.
