

FCT Chief Dies In Kidnappers' Den

The abducted Chief of Kikumi community in Bwari Area Council of the FCT, Surajo Ibrahim, has died in his abductors' den. An aide to the...

fct

By Abubakar Sadiq Isah

Tue, 7 May 2024 2:45:18 WAT

The abducted Chief of Kikumi community in Bwari Area Council of the FCT, Surajo Ibrahim, has died in his abductors' den.

An aide to the chief, Ishaku Madaki, who confirmed the death on telephone, said the kidnappers' leader called last Thursday evening to disclose the chief's death to the family.

He said after breaking the news, the kidnappers' leader insisted that a N6m ransom must be paid to free the remaining three victims.

Madaki disclosed that N300,000 out of the N6m had so far been realised through contributions.

The spokeswoman of the FCT Police Command, SP Adeh Josephine, was yet to react to the development.

Foreign military bases will weaken Nigeria's defence – PRP

We'll deal ruthlessly with criminals who steal public funds – EFCC

Recall that City & Crime reported that gunmen invaded the chief's palace, killed three people: Abdullahi, Ismail and Hamza, and abducted the chief and three other villagers.