Police operatives in Yobe State have arrested the 65-year-old Village Head of Gazarkuma in Nangere LGA, Mohammed Bulama, aka Mai Zarma, over allegedly killing a tractor driver on a farm.

The police command's spokesman, DSP Dungus Abdulkareem, said the suspect was arrested after he mobilised youths with knives, daggers, bows and arrows and raided a farmland belonging to one Maigari Mato (65) in Gubate village.

He said the attack resulted in the death of a tractor driver, Mohammed Kabiru (35) and grievous injuries to one Hassan Lawan.
