

Gunmen Open Fire On Vigilantes Observing Magrib Prayers, Kill 1

Gunmen on Thursday opened fire on vigilantes who were observing magrib prayers at a checkpoint near Tashar -Fulani in Ukya village in Toto LGA of...

gunmen open fire on vigilantes observing magrib prayers, kill 1

By Abubakar Sadiq Isah

Mon, 29 Jul 2024 5:29:46 WAT

Gunmen on Thursday opened fire on vigilantes who were observing magrib prayers at a checkpoint near Tashar -Fulani in Ukyia village in Toto LGA of Nasarawa State and killed one of them.

A vigilante, who sustained bullet wounds and was receiving treatment at the Toto General Hospital, said, “Whenever we are about leaving the checkpoint in the evening, we observe the magrib prayers.

- Attack on Dangote Refinery will demarket Nigeria, democracy group warns
- NIGERIA DAILY: What You Need To Know About Hepatitis Disease

“So, as we were praying, Aminu Adamu went to remove the logs of wood with which we mounted the roadblock. We then started hearing gunshots and Aminu was killed on the spot.”

The Chairman of Toto LGA, Alhaji Abdullahi Aliyu Tashas, who confirmed the incident, condemned the attack.