

Teenager shot dead in Abuja

Also yesterday, a stray bullet reportedly hit and killed a teenager at the NNPC Junction at Kubwa, Abuja, along the Abuja-Zuba Expressway.

A resident, Sani Abdullahi, said police officers arrived the area around 2pm and dispersed the protesters.

“The youths, however, reassembled around Zenith Bank junction in the area, pelting the security men who tried to open the inner streets for free movement.

“The security men fired shots into the air, and in the process, the victim, who is yet to be identified, was reportedly hit around his neck”, the resident said. It was gathered that policemen took the victim’s body to the Kubwa General Hospital.
