He said when the hunter failed to return, some people went in search of him and found his headless corpse riddled with bullets in the forest.

He further said that the corpse was retrieved and buried, adding that soldiers operating around the Kurutu Forest and vigilantes mobilised and went after the bandits.

Our reporter also learnt that two suspected bandits' informants were arrested in neighbouring Maraban Iddah village on Saturday by soldiers.

It was gathered that the suspects were arrested after they bought foodstuffs, drugs and wine from the Kagarko Market to be delivered to bandits.

The spokesman of the Kaduna State Police Command, ASP Hassan
