

Kaduna: Mutilated Corpse Of Missing Girl Found Inside Abandoned Building

nigerian police

By Adam Umar

Tue, 24 Sep 2024 2:41:30 WAT

The mutilated corpse of a 10-year-old girl, Nusaiba Abdullahi, who was declared missing about three weeks ago in Tafa town in Kagarko LGA of Kaduna State, has been found.

City & Crime gathered that the girl, who was said to have been abandoned on delivery by her mother, was raised by her mother's friend.

A resident, Abdullahi Salami, told our reporter yesterday that the decomposed corpse was found with the head and private parts missing at a location close to a restaurant where her custodian, Fatima Muhammad, used to send her for chores.

The DPO of Tafa, SP Idris Ibrahim, who confirmed the incident, said the remains of the victim were released to the family for burial.

- FCT police take custody of suspect accused of taking woman to hotel for ritual
- FG to establish national citizens' value brigade in schools

He further said that a manhunt had been initiated in conjunction with vigilantes in order to arrest the suspects.