A Lagos State Chief Magistrates' Court sitting in Ogba, has ordered the remand in prison custody of one Akande Omogbemi and Abubakar Mayaki, the alleged killers of a staff member of a local government in the state, Kazeem Idowu Keshinro.

The police had arraigned four suspects Mukaila Salawu, Tiyaamiyu Ahmed, Wasiu Suleimon and Ibrahim Ekemode, before Magistrate Lateef Owolabi over the incident.

The police also declared one Omogbemi and Mayaki wanted, saying that the two bolted away after the incident.

The prosecuting counsel, Mrs Abiola Adeoye, prayed the court to remand the defendants pending issuance of legal advice from the Directorate of Public Prosecution.

But defence counsel, Bright Uleyo, opposed the prayer, arguing that there is no material fact before the court to grant such application.

In his ruling, Magistrate Owolabi ordered that the accused persons be remanded in Kirikiri Correctional Centre for 30 days pending the DPP's legal advice.

The matter was adjourned till October 10 for mention.

It could be recalled that the victim, Kazeem Idowu, who was also described as a hunter and staff of Ikosi-Ejirin local government, could
