The chairman of the community, Abdulqodir Abdulmumeen, described the incident as shocking and troubling.

He said, “Our attention was drawn to it by some community members who found her body in the gutter with her two here plucked out. Some people dumped her here after allegedly killing her for ritual, but we have reported the case at Oloje police station.”

When contacted, the police spokesperson in the state, DSP Toun Ejire-Adeyemi, said he would find out and get back but she did not up till the time of filing the report yesternight.
