

...4 others killed in Anambra community

From Titus Eleweke, Awka

Four cultists were killed by the rival cults group in Umuka Nawfia Njikoka Local Government Council of Anambra State.

The suspected rival cultists clashed on Sunday resulting in the death of four cultists.

Information from eyewitnesses and some villagers said that the victims were known for their nefarious activities and are always in rivalry with another cult group in the area.

The spokesman of the State Police command SP Ikenga Tockuwu who confirmed the incident said the operations were ongoing in the area for the possible arrest of the armed men.

He said police operatives attached to Nimo Police upon arriving at the scene, found four lifeless bodies of young men in a pool of blood with suspected multiple gunshot injuries lying on the road.

The police spokesperson said the victims were confirmed dead by a doctor on duty and have been deposited at the mortuary.

He said they were later identified
