

Police Arrest 3 For Allegedly Beheading Motorcyclist; 2 For Inciting Mob In Kwara

The Nigeria Police

Ads by optAd360

By Mumini Abdulkareem, Ilorin

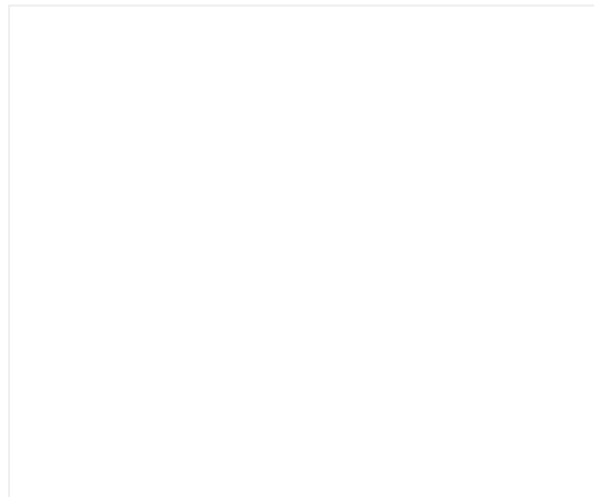

Fri, 8 Nov 2024 7:07:28 WAT

The Kwara State Police Command has arrested three suspects accused of beheading a motorcyclist in the Asunlere area of Oke-Oyi, Ilorin and stolen his machine thereafter.

Police gave the names of the three suspects as Peter Samuel, Jeremiah Tiozinda and Sunday Agbenke.

Parading them in Ilorin, the state Police Commissioner, Victor Olaiya, described the incident as “A horrific act of criminality.”

Olaiya explained that they received a report of the discovery of m within the area, which prompted investigation.

- Police arrest 3 for allegedly beheading motorcyclist; 2 for inciting mob in Kw;
- Police arrest 4 over robbery in Edo

He said, “Photographic evidence was captured, revealing a significant mark of violence around the neck, indicating that the head was severed.”

The CP said the body was subsequently evacuated and deposited at the University of Ilorin Teaching Hospital morgue, pending an autopsy.

According to him, “At the crime scene, detectives recovered an Itel android phone, suspected to belong to one of the assailants, as well as a motorcycle believed to be the deceased’s property.

“Further searches revealed that the deceased’s phone was also found on him.”

According to Olaiya, the individuals confessed to committing the crime and dumping the head at a nearby stream.

 Ads by optAd360

Meanwhile, the CP said in a separate incident, a farmer was mistakenly targeted and pursued by villagers and motorcycle operators (Okada riders), who wrongly in the crime.

He said, while this individual sought refuge at the Oke-Oyi Police Station, as lawfully parked, was severely damaged by one Yusuf Abdulkar (40) and others at large.

“Both individuals have been apprehended and all the suspects will be arraigned in court,” Olaiya submitted.