

60-Year-Old Driver Dies After Falling Into Well

20 year old man dies after jumping into well in lagos

By Salim Umar Ibrahim, Kano

Mon, 18 Nov 2024 4:28:18 WAT

A 60-year-old Sabi'u Yusha'u Unguwa Uku has been reported dead after he fell into a well located at CBN Quarters Hadejia Road, Kano.

He was said to be the driver of the wife of one of the federal ministers.

According to the Fire Service command spokesman, Saminu Yusif Abdullahi, “He came to drop some guests at a house near the place of the incident. He came out with the intention of urinating in a place where he did not know there was an unusable well.

SPONSOR AD

“The command received an emergency call for assistance from one of its staff, PFS II Sabo Wada Abdullahi, who reported the incident.

- Bandits abduct 4 family members, demand N30m ransom
- Man, 48, charged over damage to house, shop, property

“The crew on duty was mobilised to the scene of the incident and arrived at 22:50hrs.

“The man was rescued unconscious and conveyed to Sir Sunusi Hospital, Hadejia road, for medical examination where doctors confirmed his death.”

Abdullahi added that the corpse was handed over to CPL Faruku Musa of Dakata Police Division.