He said the victims were released on Sunday at Kurutu forest, which borders Azzara village and Kagarko town around 6:12pm after N8 million ransom was paid.

He disclosed that the relations of the family sold some of the victims' cows to raise the ransom, adding that a bag of rice, cartons of cough syrups, Indian hemp, wines, cartons of cigarettes and some tablets were also procured for the bandits.

The spokesman of the Kaduna State Police Command, ASP Hassan Mansur, was yet to confirm the release of the victims as at the time of filing the report.
