Others claimed the killer's son returned to the community with strange behaviour and kept away from his childhood friends and making claims that one "Baba" had warned him that his destiny and wealth is held back by his deceased mother.

The Youth President of the Elebele community, Comrade Precious Okala, who confirmed the incident, said his attention was drawn to the incident around 6 pm on the fateful day and on arrival at the scene, he found a bloody corpse of the deceased, while the killer son was held and tied down by the youths of the community.

He said: "We were told that since the boy came back from Benin City, Edo State, he has been behaving in a strange manner. On the fateful day, he was reported to have had a struggle with the mother and stabbed her with a knife in the stomach.
