Gunmen, suspected to be cattle herders, have killed nine people and injured many others in Karu Local Government Area of Nasarawa State.

The deadly attack occurred around 8 p.m. on Saturday in the Tattara community of the Panda Development Area of Karu.

According to a local source who wished to remain anonymous, the attackers invaded the community, firing shots indiscriminately at residents.

This incident bears eerie similarities to a previous attack by herders about a year ago, which resulted in the burning down of houses in Tattara.

The police were working to restore normalcy in the area as of the time of this report Sunday evening.

However, efforts to reach the police spokesperson were unsuccessful, as his phone lines were unavailable.
