

2 Sokoto doctors, 4 friends killed in auto crash

From Abubakar Auwal

Two medical doctors working with the specialist hospital in Sokoto and four of their friends have reportedly died in a road accident along the Bodinga-Yabo road.

The doctors, Anas Chika and Abubakar Liman Shehu and the four other occupants of the vehicle were on their way to Kebbi State on Sunday when their car collided with an oncoming truck.

Confirming the death, the Chief Medical Director of the Hospital, Dr Attahiru Isa, said Anas was attached to the Gynaecology Department (O and G) while Shehu was attached to the General Out-patient Department (GOPD).

According to him, Dr Shehu was also the Chief Imam of the GOPD Department.

“We are very sad, particularly the Specialist Hospital and the state government because we lost two of our dedicated, nice and humble doctors. We are truly in a very sad mood but we take it as the will of Allah.”
