

QUICK READ

1 killed as cult groups clash over control of Bayelsa market

From Bassey Willie, Yenagoa

The escalating cult clash in Yenagoa, Bayelsa State capital has further claimed one life, while another is critically injured at Amarata community, adjacent Government House.

The two cult groups are fighting for the control of the new multi-million new motor park built by the government at Igbogene, with the clash already spread to other surrounding communities.

Daily Trust gathered that one youth identified as Frank AKA Akiman, was on Friday night killed in a gun battle, while a yet-to-be identified person was critically injured on Saturday morning in a revenge battle.