The discovery followed a search operation conducted by a combined team of military personnel, police officers, and local community members.

A community leader in Logo, who declined to be named, confirmed that the victims were buried the same day in their respective hometowns.

Zebo Market is located in a Jukun settlement in Taraba State, an area where tensions between neighbouring communities have been reported in the past.

While the motive and perpetrators of this latest killing remain unknown, local sources suspect foul play and have called for a thorough investigation to bring the culprits to justice.
